Luxury Redefined at Villa Lulito in Seminyak

January 2, 2017/by Andrew Kim

Located in Seminyak's upmarket Oberoi district, Villa Lulito offers two things. Firstly, a tropical urban escape within easy reach of many unique Bali experiences and secondly, a chic exclusivity to discerning traveller.

The villa provides a perfect base for an intimate dinner or before painting the town red. This stylish white-on-white residence with a chic nautical theme and palpable colonial twist is only a short stroll from the beach, world-class restaurants, cool cafes, trendy boutiques and swanky spas. With ample spaces for all, Villa Lulito is a perfect choice for a family holiday or groups of couples or friends.

Four luxurious pavilions are oriented around a generous 15-metre swimming pool, creating one stunning residence. Verdant landscaped gardens fringe each pavilion beautifully and provide a stunning setting for alfresco dining. The two-level sleeping pavilion has a wide balcony with views over the inviting pool. A well-equipped kitchen and relaxed dining space are housed in another pavilion while a formal dining area adjoins glorious living spaces that are adorned with elegant furnishings and modern facilities in a grand central pavilion.

A quick phone call to your villa manager is all it takes to request spa therapists to the villa for rejuvenating treatments in the privacy of your villa. Exciting day trips can be arranged too, whether it is exploring the beautiful rice terraces of the artists' town of Ubud, surfing Bali's world-famous surf breaks or international-quality golfing and boating. The best thing of all, knowing that it is a joy to return to an evening of five-star comfort and luxury at your villa.
